New Generation Rexnord Roller Transfer Plates for MatTop and TableTop Chain

Rexnord® Roller Transfer Plates are an innovative system to smoothly move products from one conveyor to the next. After converting from dead plates to modular roller transfer plates, the components are able to turn sliding friction into rolling friction and minimize the amount of stranded products on transfers between production runs.

The improved design ensures smooth roller rotation even when there is contamination from food debris, syrup or cardboard dust. The double distance between the roller top surface and the frame reduces product tippage and downtime. The new Rexnord XLBP Rollers guarantee lower friction and are ideal in combination with the new Rexnord 1005XLBP MatTop® Chain.

The different modules are easy to assemble using the stiff assembly bar and screws. The new generation roller transfer modules are designed to be assembled and mounted next to each other, providing head-to-tail and 90-degree transfers with almost any Rexnord TableTop® or MatTop Chain.
